Youth Class Pure Stock Mini Cars

Ages 12 to 17

Entry Fee $60

Payouts: 1st-$500 2nd $300 and 3rd $200

Sponsored by Hancock Tire

1. Any front wheel drive automobile 110 in wheel base or smaller

2. Any rear wheel drive with a 107 in wheel base and smaller

3. 4 point cage and roll over bar is allowed, door bars no bigger then 2x6, cross bars no bigger then 4x4. You can weld a gas tank holder but not a protector off rear bar behind the seat. 3 inches off rear package tray. All cage components need to have a 3 inch gap off any floor pan.

4. Stock pedals, you may run a aftermarket shifter.

5. You may single bead weld the struts for ride height or strut risers.

6. You may run a header but no protectors

7. no added coolers or water supply of any kind.

8. you may weld your bumper on (stock mini car style bumper black bumpers only has to be the same style bumper that come off of that year make and model car. Weld it on exactly how the factory has it mounted. Bumper can not have any kind of reinforcement.

9. Any wheel and tire.

10. Wire or chain doors in 12 spots total, you may wrap the posts with duct tape. Drivers door can have a plate for safety over it.

11. Wire or chain the trunk and hood in 8 total spots.

12. You may have a battery box secured in the pass side of the car.

13. Front windshield bar is required or 9 wire in its place is fine as well. You can not have a rear windshield bar.

14. You are ONLY ALLOWED (2) 3x4 patch plates on these stock cars!

These rules are simple and they will be enforced to stay simple, if it’s not covered that means you can not do it.

Contact Thomas Long for any questions 270-645-2194