General Rules

Organizations must provide their own chairs. Tables will be provided.

Booths designed to attract the public MUST allow sufficient space in front as to not cause blocking pedestrian traffic.

Any property remaining on the fairgrounds 5 days after the event will become property of the Adair County Fair Association.

In the event a fair patron makes a complaint against a vendor or exhibitor, the vendor shall immediately meet with the complaining party, and a member of the Adair County Association shall act as an arbitrator in attempt to resolve the dispute. The Fair reserves the right to remove or cease using any device, material, or equipment which in the view of the Fair Board, creates excessive or offensive noise. The Fair Board also reserves the right to have removed any visual signage or material which it may deem offensive. Priority space assignments shall be given to vendors/exhibitors from the immediate preceding fair. After that time, all spaces shall be assigned on a first come, first served basis with final decision for space assignment at the discretion of the Adair County Fair Association.
